- The Year of Passion was coming to an end, and so was Jesus' public ministry. Jesus passed through Jericho on his way to Jerusalem for the annual celebration of the a) _____ Feast. Thousands of other Jewish travelers were also on their way to Jerusalem. They came from every part of the Roman Empire and by every available means. Some traveled by boat across the b) M _____ Sea while others used the paved roads the Romans built throughout their empire. Those who came to Jerusalem from Galilee crossed the Jordan River into the province of c) _____ to avoid going through Samaria.
- We are able to estimate the size of the crowd which attended the yearly Passover Feast because we know the number of lambs sacrificed each year. At least ten people were required to eat from one lamb, although more could do so. Approximately 250,000 lambs were slaughtered at each Passover. If we multiply this number by 10 it will give us a low estimate of the number of people who attended the Passover.
 - At least how many people attended the Passover in Jerusalem? _____
 - How many lambs were sacrificed by this crowd of people? _____
- Although it was the practice of the people who lived in Jerusalem to open their homes and provide free rooms for the travelers, many of the 2,500,000 people who came for the Passover had no place to stay. In this case, where would these people have stayed?
 - They would have returned home.
 - In one of Herod's palaces.
 - In tents put up on the Mount of Olives.
- Read John 12:1. How many days before the Passover did Jesus arrive at Bethany from Jericho? _____ days.

 - What letter on the map on the Title Page marks the location of this tower?
Letter _____.
15. Study carefully the map of Jerusalem on the Title Page. Notice the names and locations of the different buildings in the city. Remember that the area between these major buildings would have been filled with smaller houses and shops. Try to imagine what the city and surroundings must have looked like from the top of the Mount of Olives. Once the scene is fixed in your mind's eye, write the capital letter of each place in the space beside its corresponding name, at the top of page 9. Do the feedback.

Then they took the lamb into the temple to the Altar of Burnt Offering where it was killed. Then they took the lamb to the upper room, where later that night they celebrated the Lord's Supper for the first time.

The ceremonies surrounding the sacrifice of the Passover lamb in the temple were very important.
