

A CHEERING LETTER FROM ECUADOR

Dear SEAN Teachers,

The grace of God be with you.

I, Isidro Freile Alcivar, a rural pastor in Buena Fe - Ecuador, 69 years old and with 36 years in the ministry of Jesus Christ, greet you wishing that the Holy Spirit will guide you daily as you teach the Church in Latin America.

I only came about your studies at the age of 65 and I and my fellow students have been blessed by the wonderful lessons that you have drawn out of the Holy Scriptures for us.

I can only attribute to the goodness of God and the wisdom of the Holy Spirit that He has deposited in you the discernment to have organized the course in such a way that it is like a chess game that teaches just the right lesson at the right time.

I only hope and pray that the Lord will give me the wisdom to share what we are learning with so many needy people. I ask you my brothers to pray for this student so that those who hear him will be built up in the faith.

My prayer for you is that God continues to give you the same gift of teaching so many thousands more will be edified.

Yours sincerely, a student from AFLET Ecuador

Isidro Freile Alcivar

Galatians 6:6: “Let him who is taught the Word, share in all good things with him who teaches”

Brothers: I have no silver or gold to give you. But I do give you what I have, and that is my sincere gratitude, and this is not just mine, but also of all the SEAN students in Ecuador.
