

FACES OF SEAN – JANUARY 2006

Note: No one here is employed by SEAN. They all represent churches or ministries that use SEAN.

This happy group are from “la Catedral de la Esperanza” a Christian Missionary Alliance church in San Juan of Puerto Rico.

They have just graduated from the SEAN ‘Life of Christ’ course.

This baptism is taking place in a prison in Central America. The pastor is a converted ex-convict; now chaplain to the prison. The brother being baptized is a prisoner serving sentence.

Both are SEAN students.

José Rodríguez is a Costarican missionary, sent by his national church, to serve the Lord en Mali, West África.

Here he is leading a SEAN study group.

Through his ministry, most of the SEAN courses have been translated into French for use in Africa, such as: Niger, Burkina Faso, Congo and Gabón, amongst others.

This graduation took place in a Bri Bri church, high up in the Salamanca mountains of Costa Rica.

Many students in the area walk hours to get to their study group meetings.

Pastor Philip Thang (on the right) and his colleague Samuel, belong to the Chin people in Myanmar (Burma).

They are using SEAN courses to train national pastors and leaders in Myanmar.

Please pray for this important ministry.
